

Coastal Research Institute Launch Event

DATE/TIME: November 9, 2017. 2:30 PM-4:00 PM

LOCATION:

Loyola Marymount University, Life Sciences Building

Address XX

PARKING: You will be parking in the Life Sciences Building parking lot. There is only one entrance to campus for visitors (off of Lincoln Blvd.). You will need to stop at the information kiosk at that entrance where the officer on duty will give you a map of campus and direct you to the Life Sciences Building. You will have a reserved parking spot. You will be greeted by Tom Form and Jim Landry of the CRI.

Visitor Parking Main Gate (Off Lincoln Blvd): Loyola Marymount University, 1 LMU Drive, Los Angeles, CA 90045

Directions From the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX)

Travel north on Sepulveda Blvd. Remain in either of the two left lanes and merge onto Lincoln Blvd.

Follow Lincoln Blvd north past Manchester Blvd. Turn right onto LMU Drive.

EVENT ATTENDEES:

- EPA: Alexis Strauss, Erica Yelensky
- Tina Choe, Frank R. Seaver College of Science and Engineering Dean
- Jim Landry, CRI Co-Director
- Tom Ford, CRI Co-Director
- Students and faculty

EVENT SHOW FLOW

2:30 PM	YOU will arrive and get mic-ed up.
3:00 PM	Welcome – Tina Choe, Frank R. Seaver College of Science and Engineering Dean
3:05 PM	Overview of CRI – Jim Landry, CRI Co-Director Addresses: how The Bay Foundation being on campus has helped the community over the years
3:10 PM	CRI Video
3:15 PM	Impact of CRI – Tom Ford, CRI Co-Director (will introduce YOU) Addresses: Importance of the work of the CRI in relation to the EPA; Introduction of
3:20 PM	YOU will give remarks as Keynote
3:35 PM	Panel Q&A Panelists: Alexis, Tom, Jim, possibly Erica and others Moderator: Karina Johnston
4:00 PM	Reception and Poster Session